

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM H. TAFT,
of Ohio.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
CHARLES E. HUGHES, of New York.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
Hon. JOSEPH B. BENNETT.

A NUMBER of Kentucky Democratic newspapers have been very eager to jump on Governor WILLSON because of his enforced absence from the State, and they even go so far as to claim that the Republican Governor has already been out of the State longer than Mr. BECKHAM was during his entire two terms.

This charge may and it may not be true, and to get the right perspective of comparison and censure take a look at the real facts.

Governor BECKHAM left the State for a brief period once, it will be remembered, and what was the result? You have only to search the records at Frankfort and you will see that Lieutenant Governor BILL THORNE issued one pardon during Governor BECKHAM's absence which practically compelled the latter to remain in Kentucky all the time.

Governor BECKHAM had an alternate official whom he could not trust.

Dr. S. R. Harover, Messrs. James Rains, Thomas P. Boyce, James Childs and Ed Hutchison of Plagah Encampment No. 9, I. O. O. F., left yesterday for Frankfort to attend the meeting of the Grand Encampment of Kentucky, which convened this morning.

Next Sunday is Memorial Day, and one week from Saturday is Decoration Day. Rev. W. H. Davenport, Pastor of Sedden M. E. Church, will deliver the Memorial Sermon next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. to Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., of this city, the exercises taking place in the auditorium at Beechwood Park.

MRS. ELIZABETH CALVERT.

Mrs. Elizabeth Calvert, wife of Mr. Mack Calvert, died at her home in Sardia last night at 11 o'clock of consumption, aged 23 years. Deceased was a daughter of Rev. W. H. Calvert and besides her husband and parents she leaves two brothers.

The funeral services will take place Friday morning at the Sardia Church and the interment will follow in the Shannon Cemetery.

READY TO MARCH

Is the First Kentucky Regiment—To Cope With Night Riders

FRANKFORT, KY., May 19th.—While no confirmation can be secured from the Adjutant General's office, the rumor is out and is generally credited that one battalion of the First Kentucky Regiment will be called out in the State for service against the night riders.

A battalion comprises half the Regiment and will place several hundred members of the First Kentucky in the field.

Governor WILLSON has in Lieutenant Governor Cox a vice whom he can and does trust, and that is the main reason that Mr. WILLSON is enabled and feels perfectly easy about official affairs when he leaves the confines of old Kentucky.

In this connection, and in the matter of Acting Governor Cox issuing pardons to CALEB POWERS and JAMES HOWARD during Governor WILLSON's absence, the following article, taken from the correspondence of JOHN D. WAKEFIELD's versatile and timely letters from Louisville to The Cincinnati Enquirer, may not be out of place:

"When Governor WILLSON went to Washington to attend the Governors' conference, called by President ROOSEVELT, he took with him as a part of his personal luggage the record in the application of CALEB POWERS and JAMES HOWARD for pardons. While it is understood that there was no disposition on the part of Acting Governor W. H. COX to pardon either of the men, during the absence of Governor WILLSON, it is pointed out that he could not have done so had he desired with all the papers in the possession of the Governor. Governor WILLSON and Lieutenant Governor COX are the closest of friends, and have always had a thorough understanding relative to the conduct of the Executive office during the absence of the Governor. The same relations did not always exist between former Governor J. C. W. BECKHAM and former Lieutenant Governor WILLIAM P. THORNE, and for this reason BECKHAM seldom left the boundaries of the State. On one or two occasions when he did leave he was accompanied by Lieutenant Governor THORNE."

To us the Powers-Howard cases are so flagrantly pardonable, and there is such a popular clamor for Justice and the summary liberation of these celebrated prisoners, that we do not see how Mr. WILLSON, or Mr. COX, either, could honestly permit them to remain in prison twenty-four hours.

The mineral production of this country now exceeds $3,000,000,000 annually.

THE War Department has issued an order that no officer shall be chosen who stands less than 5 feet, 5 inches in height. Time was when such an order would have barred a couple of men who made big military reputations—NAPOLÉON BONAPARTE and PHIL SHERIDAN.

LEXINGTON WINS

State Democratic Convention and the Date Is Thursday, June 11th

FRANKFORT, KY., May 19th.—The Democratic State Executive Committee in session here today decided upon Lexington as the place for holding the Democratic State Convention. The vote was evenly divided between Louisville and Lexington, when Chairman Louis McQuown cast the deciding vote in favor of Lexington. The Convention will be held Thursday, June 11th.

What is medicine for? To cure you, if sick, you say. But one medicine will not cure every kind of sickness, because different medicines act on different parts of the body. One medicine goes to the liver, another to the spine, Wine of Cardui to the womanly organs. So that is why has proven so efficacious in most cases of womanly disease. Try it!

Mrs. Wm. Turner, of Bartonville, Ill., writes: "I suffered for years with female diseases, and doctored without relief. My back and head would hurt me, and I suffered agony with bearing-down pains. At last I took Wine of Cardui and now I am in good health." Sold everywhere, in $1.00 bottles.
